NOTICE

As of March, 1976, I have sold my Partnership in the Pamplin Exxon Servicenter, in Pamplin, Va. to E. T. [Dick] Richardson. After spending 30 years [very rewarding ones] in this business and serving people in this vicinity and all surrounding communities I felt I must take this opportunity to extend a very special thanks to all of you for your business and letting me serve you in many different ways. A very special thanks go to all the employees who have been with me at one time or other over these years, their dedication to me and the business meant a lot to me and I'll never forget them.

I count my friends as many and I hope that I can continue to be your friend in years to come.

I have not retired but have moved to "Tolley's Liquid Fertilizer" where I am in partnership with my son, O. H. Tolley, Jr. [Sonny]; so if I can serve you in any way, please feel free to call on me.

I enjoyed my time spent in Partnership with Dick and I'm sure you will still receive the fine, prompt, courteous service you have received over the years.

And again my family and I say "Thank you for your business, but mostly for your friendship."

O. H. & Edith Tolley

Spring Luncheon

The Appomattox Chapter of the Longwood Alumni Association enjoyed a delicious luncheon at Maude's Restaurant on Saturday, March 27. Mrs. Jan Harris, associate Dean of Students of Longwood College, was present for this special event marking the end of a most successful year.

Following the meal, Mrs. Hilda Guill entertained the group with a number of favorite musical selections.

Mrs. Betsy Carter, chapter president, conducted the business sessions and reports were heard from the various committees.

Attorney General Visits Forensic Academy Students

Virginia's Attorney General Andrew P. Miller today visited the State's Bureau of Forensic Science, Division of Consolidated Laboratory Services, in Richmond to observe in-class training programs for the ten law enforcement officers attending the Virginia Academy of Forensic Science.

These ten students, law enforcement personnel selected from agencies throughout the State, will soon complete this twelve week Academy course featuring classroom and practical training from professional forensic personnel in the recognition, collection, preservation and laboratory submission of physical evidence items recovered at crime scenes. Sponsored by the Bureau of Forensic Science and the Virginia State Crime Commission, the Academy is offered to select law enforcement personnel on a cost free basis to both the student and his agency.

Attorney General Miller, after viewing students from this session of the Academy perform chemical analyses for illegal drug identification, met with each participant to commend him for his achievement in obtaining the forensic skills necessary to meet the challenge of law enforcement and crime prevention throughout Virginia.

Miller again met with these students on March 29, 1976, at Richmond's Hotel John Marshall as diplomas were presented to each of the following members of the Virginia Academy of Forensic Science: Officer Harold K. Carpenter, Alexandria Police Dept., Investigator David B. Carter Culpeper County Sheriff's Dept., Investigator Herbert H. Chambers, Virginia State Police, Patrolman Richard A. Conway, Falls Church Police Dept., Investigator Walter D. Robertson, James City County Sheriff's Dept., Investigator Louis W. Middleton, Northumberland County Sheriff's Dept., Sergeant James M. Miller, Williamsburg Police Dept., Detective Dennis A. Mook, Portsmouth Police Dept., Officer Robert L. Presgrave, Herndon Police Dept., and Investigator Wesely G. Simmons, Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Dept.

Consumer Information Forum Set For Tuesday

"Focus on the Family" is the theme for the Eighth Annual Consumer Information Forum to be held Tuesday, April 6, 1976, at the Ramada Inn, Lynchburg, Virginia.

The program sponsored by Virginia Tech Agents and homemakers in Lynchburg, Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, and Campbell Counties will open with a presentation at 10 A.M. on "Stress without Distress" by Dr. Joseph W. Maxwell, Associate Professor, Department of Management, Housing and Family Development, VPI & SU. Dr. Maxwell will discuss the use of rational thinking in meeting everyday problems. MISS BURK'S 4-H Club

Miss Burk's 5th grade class held its 4-H club meeting on March 18,1976. We started with the pledge to the American and 4-H flag. Our recreation leader, Lisa Puckett, led us in a game of four corners. Then our secretary, Ricky Carter read the minutes of the last minutes.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. Sweet and Mr. Goldman. They showed us some demonstrations and explained ways in doing a demonstration. Then the president, Dennis Fleshman adjourned the meeting.
